I quit mine a month ago because I said two things that were out of line, God and Trump. Wouldn't you know it, someone complained. They tried to write me up, I told them to fuck off!

I was a commercial property manager and a tenant overheard me talking on the phone outside. They wanted out of their lease according to my boss because I was "on the side of Hitler" customers words, not mine. Of Course, Hitler to her was Trump.

I would have quit too. You don't need that ignorance in your life.

Do you know by any chance who your boss supported?

Not sure. My boss worked in a central office and did not see them often. I had a feeling on that last day, they were not Trump supporters though.

You should've been like "I support Jo Jorgensen and dislike Trump. I don't know what those people heard" And then see how they react. Be like, I would need some evidence of this and if he fires you anyways, file a lawsuit.

That's a good plan but I can't deny either of the 2 they heard me talking about. I'm grateful for both of them and if that's how they were, I don't want to be there. I already had another part time job so it was easy to just leave them behind.

This is the way.

A job means shit if you're enslaved in your own country.
